

A note from Hamada

COVID-19 (coronavirus) has affected everyone on a global scale. We feel your pain and our priority is the safety of our experts and our clients. While the news and social media have been constantly reporting about COVID-19, we want to make sure you are getting your information from the most reliable sources possible:

- World Health Organization
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention \(CDC\)

*Check with your local government offices for up-to-date pertinent information

While this pandemic keeps evolving, we will continue to bring you high-quality content and resources to utilize at this time.

If you have any questions, especially about applications this fall with so much uncertainty, please email me personally hamada@writetrackadmissions.com or for more general questions please email: info@writetrackadmissions.com. We appreciate your continued support and we will be here for any questions or concerns.

Stay Safe!

Hamada

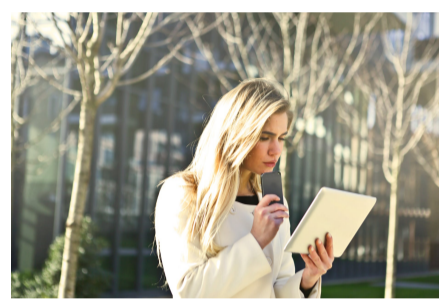

Blog:

Attention at Home College Students: 6 ways to stay productive and healthy during the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic!

You may be reading this article from home, not because you are ditching classes, but because your university is one of the many that has asked their students not to return after spring break due to the COVID-19 outbreak.

Read More

What are your options and next steps if you have been denied by your top choice colleges?

Don't think your life is over because you have been denied admissions. While this is certainly a dilemma that some people will face or are facing, there is a plan of action you can take that will help set you back on track.

Read More

REFERRAL REWARDS!

For each client you refer and we procure, you will receive an Amazon gift certificate! But it doesn't stop there: your referral will also receive a discount for the services requested! So its a win-win for YOU & your REFERRAL!

Spread the word and get a Referral Reward from Write Track Admissions!

Contact Us!

From one of our Referral Rewards participants!

Hey guys, totally unexpected and a very nice thoughtful gesture. thanks a lot for that :)I usually get 1 or 2 kids asking me for advice every year, so I'll be sure to send any i get your way.

- Abraham E.

Complimentary Evaluation

While the world may feel in chaos, we are here to untangle your admissions questions. If you are struggling to figure out your timeline, what activities to pursue this summer or just don't know where to start... we have answers! Schedule a Free Personal Evaluation today!

CLICK HERE!

Facebook

Twitter

LinkedIn

Youtube

Instagram

You can unsubscribe here or change your email notifications.

Online version is available here!